

Welcome to Britannica School school.eb.com.au

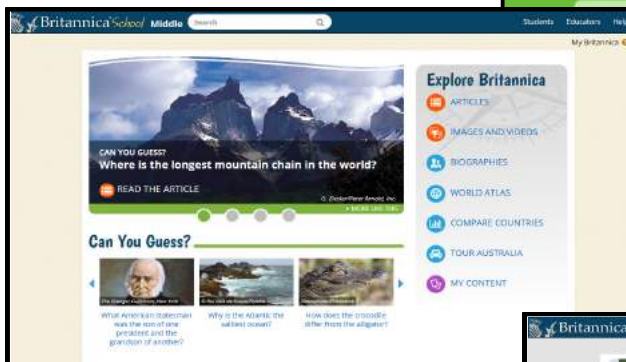

Three learning levels to choose from

PRIMARY

MIDDLE

HIGH

Free Online Training for Subscribers!

K-12 Search Results for All Students

The screenshot shows the search results for 'plant' on the Britannica School Middle website. The search bar at the top contains the word 'plant'. Below the search bar, there are three tabs for reading levels: Level 1, Level 2 (which is selected), and Level 3. A callout box points to these tabs with the text: "Select articles at different reading levels! Select Level 1 for Primary School, Level 2 for Middle School, Level 3 for High School, or all 3." The main content area displays several article snippets, including "diseases of plants" and "extinct plants". On the left side, there is a vertical navigation menu with icons for Articles, Images, Videos, Dictionary, EBSCO Journals, Web's Best Sites, and Primary Sources / E-Books. At the top right, there are links for "My Britannica", "My Content", "Lesson Plan Browse", and "Log Out".

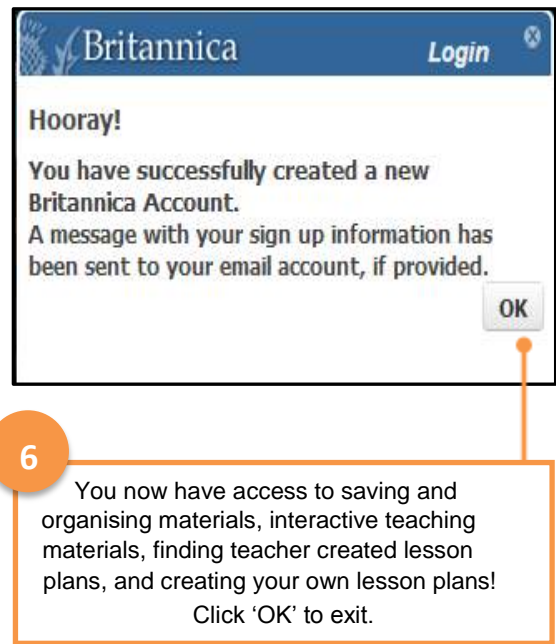

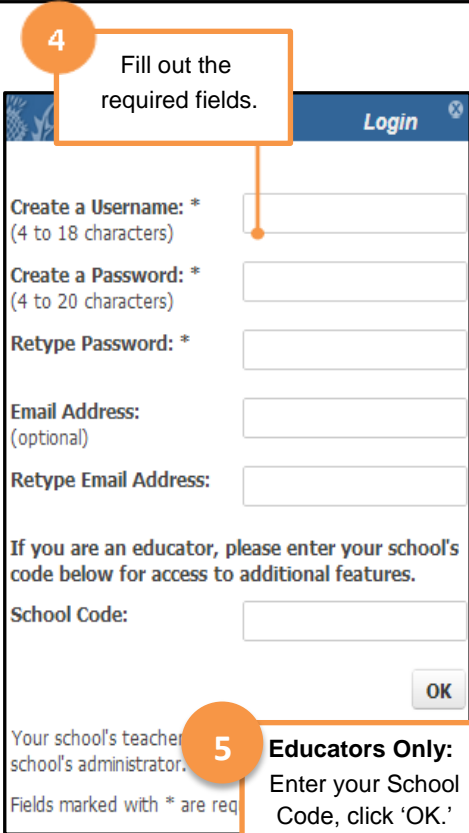

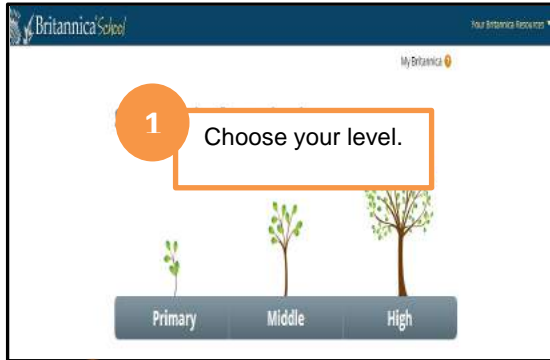

Article Features

The screenshot shows the full article page for 'plant' on the Britannica School Middle website. The article title 'plant' is prominently displayed. Below the title, there are tabs for 'Article', 'Images & Videos', 'Related', and 'Teacher'. A callout box points to the 'Article' tab with the text: "Students can jump to different reading levels within the article." Below the tabs, there are three reading level indicators: 1, 2, and 3. A second callout box points to the 'Article' tab area with the text: "View article information, multimedia, related articles, and curriculum codes." The main text of the article begins with "Wherever there is sunlight, air, and soil, plants can be found. On the northernmost coast of Greenland the Arctic poppy peeps out from beneath the ice. Mosses and tussock grasses grow in Antarctica. Flowers of vivid color and great variety force their way up through the snow on mountainsides. Many shrubs and cacti thrive in deserts that go without rain for years at a time, and rivers, lakes, and swamps are filled with water plants." A video player is visible on the left side of the article. At the bottom of the article, there is a navigation bar with buttons for "Save content", "Print", "Email", "Cite", "Translate", "Listen", "Increase font", and "Decrease font".

This block provides a detailed view of the navigation bar at the bottom of the article page. It consists of a row of buttons: "Save content", "Print", "Email", "Cite", "Translate", "Listen", "Increase font", and "Decrease font". Below this row is a secondary row of icons: a star (for saving), a printer (for printing), an envelope (for email), a checkmark (for citation), a globe (for translation), a speaker (for listening), a plus sign (for increasing font size), a minus sign (for decreasing font size), and a right-pointing arrow (for navigating to the next page).

My Britannica for Students and Teachers

My Britannica' provides users a quick and easy way to collect and share materials including articles, images, and videos. Whether you are planning a lesson or just need quick access to important information, you can log into 'My Britannica' from school, home, or the library.

My Britannica – Resource Packs

Resource Packs are a great way to collect and organise Britannica School content around any topic of your choice! Try using them to support classroom discussions, or as starting points for inquiry or research projects.

Once you have created your 'My Britannica' account, you can create resource packs! Simply click on the green button and enter the name of your resource pack.

The screenshot shows the 'My Content' page for a user named Creelman Class AUDemo. A green button labeled 'Create a new resource pack!' is highlighted. Below it, a list of resource packs is shown, including 'Edugreen - Water pollution' (Website), 'AT THE TURTLE HOSPITAL.' (Magazine), 'Pacific Ocean: plastic pollution' (Video), and 'light pollution: effect on sea turtles'.

Add content to your resource pack by clicking on the star in the search results OR content tool bar. Add to an existing resource pack or create a new one.

The first screenshot shows a search result for 'planets' with a star icon in the top right corner. The second screenshot shows the 'planet' article page with a star icon in the top right corner of the article content area.

Share your Resource Packs

Edit your pack and add your own documents.

Add notes and share your pack with students and teachers.

The screenshot shows the 'My Content' page for a user named My Britannica. A resource pack titled 'Indigenous Australians' is selected. The pack contains 1 Video, 6 Articles, and 12 Images. A 'Share Pack' button is highlighted in the top right corner. A text box for adding notes is visible below the pack details.

Build and Share Lesson Plans

Teachers can convert any resource pack to a Lesson Plan.

An easy - to - follow format makes it a snap to create and share lessons using Britannica School.

Aligned to Australian Curriculum Codes

Click on 'Educators' to find the link to the curriculum standards.

Plug in the standard type, grade level, and subject area to find Britannica resources that align with your needs.

Presenter Name: Email:

Username: Password: School Code:
